Hotel "Mont fleuri"

(700 metres high)

August, 12th. 911

My dear Kathleen;
after 4 days spend at Ban Ligne s/mer, to have a little rest after London, we went to this awful place (as the Uncle of Mrs.
Fehling said) called Cautreseville, for my cure.

Indeed it is an awful village; no Promenades,
no shops, dust, terrible sunshine, no shade;
only the Cosmopolitan Hotel, nicely situated on a little rocky and well furnished and good managed, this

Hotel where we had good rooms and the celebrated Source of "Pavillon" where the only consolation to support 3 weeks stay with about 30 - 36 degrees Celsius. - One of the most agreeable moments gave me your charming letter. - I am sorry

not to manage sufficiently english language to answer in ~~a~~ just approaching your heartly and welcoming (is This an english word?)
"Guttklingend" like yours Toss on your fiddle, style.-- ~~How~~ thank the Lord, we are in a quite Place, situated on the Geneva Lake.

But what ^{the} ~~only~~ ^{the} Terrible heat?

We respire only in the morning and the evening, after 6 o' clock. In day time the windows and jalousies closed, in dark rooms, we leave like bears in the winter in Russia. — In addition to all I am obliged to play my fiddle sometimes after complete negligence about three months as I am engaged to play the Beethoven Concerto next month at Moscow and Petersburg in presence of all my pupils!

Is it not terrible?

Your engagement for ⁽¹⁹¹²⁾ November (~~your date~~) (in Petersburg and very likely in Moscow, is settled.
I asked 1500 roubles the
both. - The Chairman of the Society writes me that he will do his best to get you Warsaw, Riga improving on their French work!

who. Wien sounds her best love; she is and perhaps other towns.

In any case, You will play there; that is the way to "con-querir" (I don't know the english word) a new country, and such a big one. —

Good by, my dear child; You know how great pleasure Your letters give me. —

Hearty Kisses for You and Mother. —

L. Rues

Please, give our best greetings to, and also, taking
